

Application Guide for 2024 MEXT Scholarship Program (University Recommendation) [As of November, 13, 2023]

1. Application Requirements

(1) Eligible applicants

International students with outstanding academic records (*) who wish to enter the University of Aizu (UoA) Graduate School as a new student in October, 2024.

() Applicants must have university grade points of 2.30 (out of 3.00) or above in their last attended (working professionals) or currently attending undergraduate or graduate school (current students) and be expected to maintain the same academic standards during the course of the scholarship program. (Grade points will be calculated according to a formula specified by MEXT.)

(2) Nationality

Applicants must have the nationality of a country with diplomatic relations with the Japanese government. Applicants who have Japanese nationality at the time of application are ineligible. However, Japanese nationals that reside outside of Japan at the time of application, having dual citizenship with another country, and plan on relinquishing their Japanese nationality before arrival, may apply.

(3) Age

Applicants who were born on or after April 2, 1989

(4) Academic background

Applicants who have qualifications to enter our Master's or Doctoral program.

(5) Fields of study

Academic fields which applicants majored in at their university, or other related fields. (Academic fields shall be limited to those for which UoA can provide educational and research instruction.)

(6) Language Proficiency The validity period of the language exam will be the score obtained within two years from the time of the start of the open call.

Applicants must meet one of the requirements below in either Japanese or English.

<Japanese>

- a. Those who has passed N2 or higher level of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT) by the time of their enrollment in an official graduate program.
- b. Those who completed a curriculum conducted in Japanese as the main language which meets the entrance qualifications for the master's or doctoral course of a Japanese graduate school.
- c. Those evaluated by the host university to have Japanese proficiency equivalent to or superior to that detailed above.

<English>

- a. Those who have an English proficiency certification or test score equivalent or superior to a B2 on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), such as TOEFL - iBT 72 or more, IELTS 5.5 or more, TOEIC L&R/S&W (L:400, R:385, S:160, W:150 or more) or more.
- b. Those who completed a curriculum conducted in English as the main language which meets the entrance qualification for the master's or doctoral course of a Japanese graduate school.
- c. Those evaluated by the host university to have English proficiency equivalent to or superior to that detailed above.

(7) Health conditions

Applicants who are sound in both mind and body to pursue their studies and research at UoA

(8) Arrival dates

Applicants must be able to leave for and arrive in Japan on the date set by UoA, which is normally the end of September. (It must be within two weeks of the beginning of the 3rd Quarter on October 1.)

(9) Visa

An applicant must newly obtain a “College Student” visa at the Japanese diplomatic mission located in the applicant’s country of nationality, and enter Japan with the residence status of “College Student.” Accordingly, even if the applicant already has other residence status (“Permanent resident,” “Long-term resident,” etc.), the applicant must change it to the “College Student” status and re-enter Japan. Moreover, the applicant should be aware that after expiration of the status as a MEXT Scholarship student and even if the student again applies for their original resident status of “Permanent resident” or “Long-term resident,” such resident statuses might not be necessarily granted. The applicant should also be aware that the scholarship will be cancelled if he/she arrived in Japan without a newly obtained “College Student” visa.

(10) Applications who meet either of following conditions are not eligible:

- ① Those who are military personnel or military civilian employees at the time of their arrival in Japan or during the period of the payment of the scholarship.
- ② Those who cannot arrive in Japan by the period designated by UoA.
- ③ Those who are previous grantees of Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship programs (including those who withdraw from the scholarship program after the arrival in Japan), but do not have educational research experience of more than three years from the month following the final payment of the previous scholarship to the month when the payment of this scholarship begins. This does not apply to past grantees of Japanese Studies scholarship nor Japan-Korea Joint Government Scholarship Program for the Students in Science and Engineering Departments who have graduated or are going to graduate from universities in their home countries and past participants in the Young Leaders Program. MEXT Honors Scholarship is not one of MEXT Scholarship Programs.
- ④ Those who are also applying for a Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship for another AY2024 program.
- ⑤ Those who are must be residing in Japan at the time of application.
- ⑥ Those who are planning to receive scholarship from an organization other than MEXT (including a government organization of the applicant’s country) after arrival in Japan.
- ⑦ Those who are expected to graduate at the time of application and cannot satisfy the qualifications and the conditions related to academic background by the deadline given.
- ⑧ Holders of dual nationality at the time of application who cannot verify that they will give up Japanese nationality by the time of the arrival in Japan.
- ⑨ Those who plan to, from the time of application for the MEXT scholarship program, engage in long-term research (such as fieldwork or internship) outside Japan or plan to take a long-term leave of absence from the university.
- ⑩ Those who do not aim to enter the master’s or doctoral program as a regular student. Those who have completed a doctoral course and have no intention to obtain a degree.

(11) MEXT Scholarship will be granted those who are willing to contribute to mutual understanding between Japan and their home country by participating in activities at schools and communities during their study in Japan while contributing to the internationalization of Japan. They shall also make efforts to promote relations between the home country and Japan by maintaining close relations with the university attended after graduation, cooperating with the conducting of surveys and questionnaires, and cooperating with relevant projects and events conducted by the Japanese diplomatic mission after they return to their home countries.

- (12) The policy of the Japanese Government pertaining to illegal export of materials and technology related to weapons of mass-destruction, etc. must be fully taken into account for recommendations. Therefore, in cases where there is a concern that an applicant's major fields might be related to production or development of weapons of mass-destruction, such an applicant shall not be recommended for this scholarship.

- Master's/Doctoral students

The standard period necessary for completion of the relevant graduate school programs starting from October in AY2024.

*<Note> If the grantee wishes to advance to a regular program in a graduate school as a regular student, or to proceed to a doctoral program from a master's program, he/she may apply for an evaluation screening for the extension of the scholarship period for advanced study if he/she meets the prescribed standards with outstanding academic records. Note that extension is not guaranteed for all who apply.

4. Suspension of Payment of Scholarship

Payment of the scholarship will be stopped in the following cases. Should any of the following apply, the grantee may be ordered to return a part of, or all of, the scholarship paid up to that time. Payment of the scholarship may also be stopped during the period up to the decision on the disposition of the matter.

- ① A grantee is determined to have made a false statement on his/her application;
- ② A grantee violates any article of his/her pledge to MEXT;
- ③ A grantee violates any Japanese laws and is sentenced and imprisoned for an indefinite period or for a period exceeding 1 year;
- ④ A grantee is suspended from his/her university or receives other punishment, or is removed from enrollment;
- ⑤ It has been determined that it will be impossible for a grantee to complete the course within the standard time period because of poor academic grades or suspension or absence from the university;
- ⑥ A grantee came to Japan without newly acquiring the "Student" residence status, or changed his/her residence status to one other than "College Student";
- ⑦ A grantee has received another scholarship (excluding those specified for research expenditures);
- ⑧ A grantee proceeds to a more advanced level of education without receiving approval for an extension of the period of the scholarship;
