

About the University of Aizu Community Space Kiyare

The University of Aizu Community Space Kiyare is an exchange space open not only to students, faculty, and staff of the University, but also to local residents.

The facility can also be used by students, faculty, and staff for educational and research activities, exhibitions and presentations (excluding music and dance recitals, etc.), and other events and activities.

Users can encounter traditional local culture and feel the warmth of nature through the interior decor, which makes use of local Aizu cotton and includes Aizu lacquer and even a tabletop made from reused wood from the Tokyo Olympic and Paralympic Athlete Village. Feel free to stop by and use Kiyare.

*“Kiyare” means “come on by” in the old dialect of the Minamiaizu region.
